

The Dreamer

Imaginative, curious, and full of potential — you're a visionary at the idea stage. You see opportunities where others see gaps, and your mind is always crafting "what if" scenarios. Your challenge isn't creativity — it's focus and follow-through.

Strengths

- Creative vision and imagination
- Ability to see opportunities everywhere
- High curiosity and adaptability

Challenges

- Difficulty prioritizing ideas
- Tendency to overthink before acting
- Needs accountability for execution

Scalability Focus

Turn inspiration into iteration. Test and track what works, then evolve your idea based on real data instead of instinct alone. The Dreamer scales by transforming imagination into a repeatable creative process.
